

Drawing I PART I

An Introduction to Drawing with Jim Connelly

Course Summary

Learning to draw is really all about learning to see. This class will cover the basic principles of learning to see and draw from real life. We will cover different approaches and methods for expressing on paper what we see. The principles covered are foundational to learning to draw anything and apply to all of the visual arts. Class size is limited to 12 students to allow for individual instruction.

Skill Level

Beginner to intermediate. Anyone with the willingness to learn, high school age on up. If you have never been able to draw anything in your life you can learn. If you have had some classes or drawing experience in the past your skills will improve.

You Will Learn

- Skill In Seeing Accurately
- Different Approaches To Drawing
